

SYDNEY ROYAL EASTER SHOW TALENT AUDITIONS PERFORMER GUIDELINES

Please note that these Guidelines must be adhered to and do form part of your Conditions and Guidelines (Contract).

Music Guidelines

- The Sydney Royal Easter Show is enjoyed by Guests of many ages, and from many walks of life and ethnicities. Show content that can be enjoyed by all of our Guests is crucial. Be aware that some popular music may contain content, lyrics and references that are not appropriate at the Sydney Royal Easter Show, therefore should not contain lyrics with bad language or any sexual connotations. Be prepared to provide lyrics for any piece that is deemed questionable.

Choreography Guidelines

- The use of sexually explicit choreography is not appropriate for the patrons of the Sydney Royal Easter Show. Young participants should be performing routines suitable for their particular age. Exaggerated pelvic and/or chest movements, front leg mounts, forward facing side splits, etc, are not suitable.

Costume Guidelines

- Please remember that costuming is just as important as how your group performs. Please keep these items in mind:
 - Brief and/or skimpy costumes are not appropriate. Skirts and shorts should cover the body to a minimum of mid-thigh length. Any midriff tops should be no shorter than mid torso. If a costume is worn that shows the belly, it is recommended that a body stocking be worn.
 - Stockings should be worn under any costumes where legs are showing.
 - Costumes should suit your music and choreography.
 - Good grooming is essential. Hair styles and make-up should be kept tidy, appropriate and in unison.
 - Matching or complimentary attire is to be worn by the director and accompanists or anyone else who must appear on-stage alongside the performers.
 - No body piercings or tattoos showing (earrings are acceptable).
 - Bare feet are dangerous and inappropriate. Appropriate footwear to be worn.
 - Costume changes are not permitted on stage. Costume changes are only to be made in designated dressing rooms.
