SHOW PROVIDES SPRING-BOARD FOR FINE FOOD PRODUCERS

Friday 11 September 2015

The search for the best in Australian fine food concluded this week after two weeks of judging the finest delicacies on offer at the 2015 Sydney Royal Spring Fine Food Show at Sydney Showground.

A team of 115 expert judges put over 1,100 products to the test in categories showcasing branded beef, branded lamb, deli meat, olive oil and regional food for the chance to be awarded a prestigious Gold, Silver or Bronze medal or Sydney Royal Championship.

Lyndey Milan, Chair Sydney Royal Fine Food and Wine Shows, said it was great to be involved in a thriving competition as Australian consumers are becoming increasingly interested in the provenance of their food, as well as in diversity, choice and flavour.

"Fuelled by the consumers' ever-growing love affair for food via TV shows and the media, people are becoming more discerning and seeking new products," she said.

"This has encouraged boutique, artisanal and larger producers to come to the front and enter our competitions to meet this high quality demand.

"The judges tasted their way through some excellent produce and awarded 105 Gold, 287 Silver and 376 Bronze medals, in addition to 29 Sydney Royal Championship Trophies.

Sally Evans, Steward-in-chief for Regional Food, said judges don't just critique products to make awards, they are focused on contributing to the future success of Australian producers.

"Many companies, large and small, have been refining their products for years, using feedback from our Sydney Royal judges. This has led not only to greater success in competitions, but to greater commercial success for our exhibitors," she said.

"It's very rewarding to see a company earn a Bronze Medal one year, and in the years to follow find that they have raised the quality up to a silver, gold and even to Champion Trophy level," said Ms Evans.

Sydney Royal competitions lead the way in an exhaustive range of food competitions, judged seasonally, to give the consumer quality assurance in successful products.

The general public are invited to eat their way through the winning produce at the Awards event on 22 October at Sydney Showground and can purchase tickets at sydneyroyal.com.au/awards.

Branded Beef

Sydney-based producer Andrews Meat Industries has proved itself a cut above the rest at the Sydney Royal Spring Fine Food Show – Branded Beef Competition, winning a string of trophies including Grand Champion Grain Fed Beef.

This is the second year in a row the producer has taken out the highest honours. Andrews Meat Industries has also been awarded Champion Open Beef Exhibit and Champion Wagyu / Other Breeds Beef Exhibit.

The company also walked away with Champion Speciality Product in a separate competition of the Show, the Deli Meat Competition.

Andrews Meat Industries is a family owned, run and managed company that has provided total meat service solutions to the food service industry in Australia and throughout the world for over 55 years.

Bindaree Beef of Sydney were also successful, taking out Champion Grass Fed Beef Exhibit for the second year in a row, while Champion Grain Fed Beef Exhibit went to JBS Australia of Booval QLD.

Nine Gold, fifteen Silver and six Bronze medals were awarded, in addition to five Championship Trophies, at the 2015 Branded Beef Competition.

Branded Lamb

2012 President's Medal winner and premium lamb producer, Milly Hill Pty. Ltd. has topped the honours list at the Sydney Royal Spring Fine Food Show – Branded Lamb competition, winning Champion Grass Fed Lamb Exhibit for their Grass Fed 20-23 kilograms.

Deli Meat

The enormously popular Deli Meat category saw 676 products entered into the competition this year, with 65 per cent of entries being made up of NSW produce.

Of the nine Champion Trophies awarded at this year's Show, four were claimed by Barossa Fine Food, who also collected a meaty 13 Gold, 18 Silver and 26 Bronze Medals.

What started as a single shop in 1991, the South-Australian business boasts eight retail shops and supplies premium product Australia-wide.

NSW Northern Beaches producer, German Butchery, won Champion Bacon Exhibit for its Canadian Style Maple Bacon in addition to five Gold, eight Silver and ten Bronze Medals.

The Deli Meat Competition saw 53 Gold, 187 Silver, 244 Bronze Medals and nine Championship Trophies awarded to Australian producers.

Olive Oil

In 2015, the Olive Oil Competition achieved a record 136 entries, as a result of an increase in boutique producers developing quality produce and entering in Sydney Royal Shows.

The competition saw judges taste the finest olive oil products, in addition to olives and olive products.

Unlike other competitions in the Spring Fine Food Show, all nine Champion winners were unique producers in their respective classes.

Champion Olives and Champion Olive Product winners were both NSW producers, Gibson's Grove in Forbes and Tuscan Treats in Jiggi, respectively. The remaining seven represent the diversity of entries of the Sydney Royal Show, which included producers from Victoria, South Australia and the ACT.

The high-profile judges for the Olive Oil Competition awarded 19 Gold, 43 Silver and 55 Bronze Medals, in addition to the nine Championship Trophy winners.

Regional Food

Two NSW producers have led the way in the Regional Food Competition, claiming two Championship Trophies each out of the six classes, with two other NSW companies taking out the remaining top honours.

Nicholson Fine Foods of Yamba and its Euro Style Spiced Beetroot Finishing Vinegar claimed the Champion Regional Food Exhibit and Champion Savoury Product Trophies, while Barbushco of Lorne took home Champion Speciality Product and Champion Organic Regional Food Exhibit for its Lemon Myrtle product.

Sydney boutique companies Sweetness the Patisserie from Epping and Jam & Jelly by Jewell of Georges Hall took home Champion Sweet Product and Champion Chilli Product respectively.

The Show received a total of 260 exhibits, which were made up of over 65 per cent NSW based entries. In addition to the six Champions, the Show awarded 21 Gold, 36 Silver and 65 Bronze Medals.

 147 Hunter Valley Verjuice, Hunter Valley "rouge" verjuice (Produced by Hunter Valley Verjuice) 70.67

JUDGES COMMENTS: Expression of fruit without being over powered by simple sugars is the key to success. Gold medal entry met this criteria perfectly.

- G 149 Kookaberry Jams, Kookaberry Raspberry Vinegar (Produced by Kookaberry Jams) 90.67
 148 Kookaberry Jams, Kookaberry Strawberry Vinegar (Produced by Kookaberry Jams) 70.33

JUDGES COMMENTS: The creativity of entrants is applauded but creativity should improve the product. Exhibits in this class must have a toffee like characters.

- S 153 Your Inspiration At Home Pty Ltd, Maple Caramelised Balsamic Vinegar (Produced by Your Inspiration At Home Pty Ltd) 85.67
S 150 Lychee Divine, Tomarata Sensual Caramelised Lychee Balsamic Vinegar (Produced by Australian Vinegar) 82.00

 158 Alpine Berry Farm, Caramelised Raspberry Balsamic Vinegar (Produced by Alpine Berry Farm) 63.33

Class 16 - Vinegar, other (can be manufactured by natural or other means, including thickened or glaze styles).

JUDGES COMMENTS: In a vinegar class acidity should be pronounced. This was not the case for some entries in this class. Defining flavour should be prominent with best entries having a balanced flavour profile.

- G 166 Nicholson Fine Foods Pty Ltd, Euro Style Spiced Beetroot Finishing Vinegar (Produced by Nicholson Fine Foods) 91.00

 167 Nicholson Fine Foods Pty Ltd, Roasted Red Capsicum Finishing Vinegar (Produced by Nicholson Fine Foods) 68.33

Class 17 - Dressings & Marinades.

JUDGES COMMENTS: Dressings and marinades should enhance other ingredients, but not dominate. Most products in this category needed to concentrate on better balance of sugar and acid. Many products also lacked depth and freshness. Medal winner in this category demonstrated well integrated flavours, textures, viscosity and appearance.

Class 18 - Dips (maximum dairy content 25%).

JUDGES COMMENTS: Dips should be true to type and reflect the core ingredients. The addition of some (trendy) ingredients did little to enhance the flavour or texture of some entries. The medal winner in this category was true to type and obviously used quality ingredients.

- B 185 Folie Douce Catering, Taramasalata (Produced by Folie Douce) 75.33
- 181 Jelbonleigh Estate, Macadamia Nut Hummus (Produced by Jelbonleigh Estate) 63.00

SPECIALITY PRODUCTS*Class 19 - Cereal Products (Muesli) - toasted.

JUDGES COMMENTS: There was a wide variety of entrants with some interesting ingredient combinations and styles this year. Treading the line between tradition and innovation, sadly many entries failed to stand out given the size of the field. We welcome continued competition and creativity in entries next year.

- B 200 Adelia Fine Foods, Raw Paleo Muesli (Produced by Adelia Fine Foods) 74.33

Class 21 - Nuts and Nut Products (including fresh or flavoured nuts, nut butters, trail mixes, and other products with nuts as primary ingredients).

JUDGES COMMENTS: Interesting and successful innovation in this category. Three out of 4 medals awarded so quality was high. We encourage other entrants of non macademia products. Dukkahs did not fare as well with only one (1) medal amid continued misuse of lemon myrtle. Good results with the spreads, which were of high quality. Pickled walnuts were a novelty and we would like to see more entries like this. Think of balance when crafting nut and seed mixes for cooking since all were unbalanced.
